September 2011 Announcements

OPHA Awards: Call for Nominations!

Nomination Forms Due September 21

As you look forward to our 2011 OPHA Annual Meeting and the Celebration of the 67th anniversary of OPHA, please take a moment to reflect on the contributions of our fellow OPHA members, colleagues and community members that have contributed to public health in our communities. Each year OPHA gives awards for outstanding contributions affecting the health of Oregonians. Award categories are:

Lifetime Achievement

Emerging Leader

Policy Champion

Nominate a person or organization for an OPHA award by completing the OPHA Awards Nomination form available on the OPHA website and following the instructions on the form. Awards will be presented at the OPHA 2011 Annual Meeting at the conference.

OPHA Elections in Progress

Ballots are in the Mail

It's time for our annual OPHA elections. Ballots and candidate statements will soon be arriving in your snailmail mailbox if they haven't already. Remember you must sign your name and note your region on the outside of the envelope to make it count. Mail in Ballots must be postmarked by September 28th. You can also submit your ballot in person at the OPHA Annual Meeting in Corvallis by 8 am on Tuesday October 11th. Winners will be announced at the Business Meeting, Tuesday October 11th, at 12 pm.

Changes to the OPHA bylaws must be approved by a majority of OPHA members in an association-wide election. This year proposed amendments will be voted on at the OPHA Annual Meeting and Conference in Corvallis at the general membership meeting at 12:00pm on Tuesday, October 11, 2011. A full copy of the proposed amendments are available to download off of the OPHA website, www.oregonpublichealth.org.

OPHA is now on Twitter

To follow OPHA go to twitter and search for @ORPublicHealth. We're following 118 organizations and individuals--but who else should we be following? Please email suggestions to Lesa Dixon-Gray.

Look for tweets during the OPHA Annual Meeting and Conference on October 10 and 11.

OPHA Annual Meeting & Conference, October 10 – 11, 2011

Early Bird Registration Closes September 25

The Annual OPHA Meeting and Conference is the largest, most influential collaboration of public health professionals in Oregon. Administrators, nurses, physicians, researchers, policy makers, educators, and students from across the state will meet to shape the future of public health in Oregon. Partnering for the first time with the Oregon Environmental Health Association, the 2011 Conference will showcase the latest research, trends, strategies, and policy changes in public health.

More information about the Conference, including a preliminary program, registration fees, sponsorship opportunities, and hotel accommodations, can be found on the 2011 OPHA Annual Meeting & Conference Webpage.
